

I'm concerned about Sinclair Broadcasting's mandating their stations to air a politically one-sided documentary days before a presidential election. They're under an obligation to serve the public interest, but this is clearly in their own corporate interest. I believe it's detrimental to a democratic society.

Thank you.